SUPPORTED BY OUR MISSION.

Since 1962, Abilities First a nonprofit organization has been supporting the needs of children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The organization, formerly known as Rehab Programs, now is entrusted to those ages preschool through adulthood. With more than 500 dedicated employees committed to providing educational, vocational, residential, habilitation, and family support services, Abilities First gives individuals with disabilities and their families the support to attain independence, self-determination, integration, and acceptance by others. In serving over 1,400 throughout seven counties with the Hudson Valley region of New York State, Abilities First holds a long-term commitment to creating a cohesive culture of compassion, empowerment, and respect for these individuals through education, exploration, and experience.
